Women BRS MLAs' Case: HC Seeks Cops' Identification

HYDERABAD, SEPT.29

The Telangana High Court on Tuesday issued key directions over the alleged manner in which police personnel dealt with women BRS MLAs at the state Assembly.

The court directed the Director General of Police (DGP) to identify the police personnel who allegedly behaved inappropriately with the women MLAs during the recent Assembly session. It also ordered an inquiry into the incident and directed the authorities to submit a report to the Assembly Speaker detailing the action taken against those found responsible.

The High Court further clarified that the Speaker has the authority to take action if any Assembly rules were violated.

BREAK DARSHAN CANCELLED ON OCT 1 to 5

TIRUMALA, SEPT.29

In view of the expected increase in the pilgrim rush during the Peratasi month and the ensuing holidays, the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) has decided to cancel VIP Break Darshan (except for protocol VIPs) on Thursday, October 1, and Monday, October 5. At present, around 80,000 devotees are having darshan of Lord Venkateswara every day. In addition, nearly 30,000 devotees arriving on the same day are being accommodated for darshan on the following day.

CM Trying to Divide Hindus for Votes:NRR

HYDERABAD, SEPT.29

Telangana BJP president N. Ramchander Rao on Monday accused Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy of attempting to divide Hindus and consolidate Muslim votes by invoking the names of Hindu deities. Reacting to Revanth Reddy's reported remark that "Sri Ram is the God of the rich and Har Har Mahadev is the God of the poor", Rao said there was no distinction between Lord Ram

Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy appeals to Union Jal Shakti Minister C. R. Patil

NEW DELHI, SEP 29

Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy has appealed to Union Jal Shakti Minister C. R. Patil to persuade the Maharashtra government and secure approvals at the earliest for the construction of the Thummidihatti Barrage. The Chief Minister informed the Union Minister that Telangana has already submitted the information sought by Maharashtra in connection with the construction of the barrage.

Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy and Telangana Irrigation Minister N. Uttam Kumar Reddy met Union Jal Shakti Minister C. R. Patil in Delhi on Tuesday evening. During the meeting, they discussed several issues concerning Telangana's projects in the Krishna and Godavari basins.

The Chief Minister urged the Union Minister to facilitate an early agreement between Telangana and Maharashtra for constructing the Thummidihatti Barrage at FRL +152 metres. He explained that constructing the barrage at this level would enable water to be conveyed to Ellampalli through gravity. This, in turn, would reduce the electricity required for lifting and conveying the water, thereby lowering power consumption and expenditure.

The Chief Minister also requested Union Minister C. R. Patil to grant environmental clearances for the Palamuru-Rangareddy Lift Irrigation Scheme (PRLIS), Dindi Lift Irrigation

Telangana to deploy army engineers for SLBC tunnel, Kaleshwaram barrage works

HYDERABAD, SEPT.29

The Telangana government is set to strengthen the execution of the Srisailem Left Bank Canal (SLBC) tunnel works and the rehabilitation of the Medi-gadda, Annaram and Sundilla barrages by inducting additional officers from the Indian Army's Corps of Engineers. The Military Secretary's Branch of the Integrated Headquarters of the Ministry of Defence has offered three officers for selection by the state government — Lt Col Satyadev Singh, Lt Col Ranjit A. Menon and Lt Col H.V. Bhalala. The government is likely to take all three officers on deputation and deploy them on some of the state's most technically challenging irrigation projects. Irrigation Minister N. Uttam Kumar Reddy recently met Chief of the Army Staff General Dhiraj Seth at his official

Congress names candidates for TWO GRADUATES' MLC SEATS

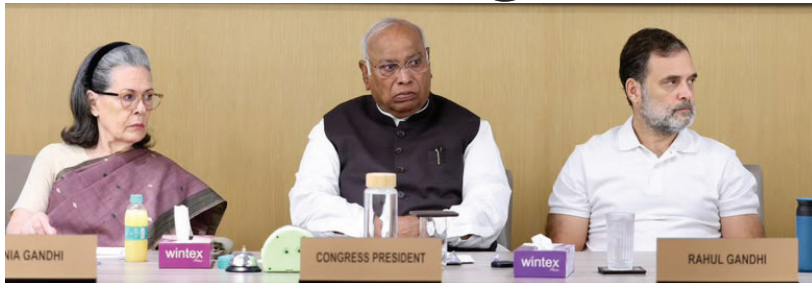

Hyderabad, Sept. 29: The Congress has finalised Sama Rammohan Reddy and Ramreddy Sarvotham Reddy as its candidates for the two Graduates' MLC constituencies in Telangana, with elections due in early 2027. The decision was cleared by Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge on Tuesday. Rammohan Reddy will contest from the Hyderabad-Rangareddy-Mahbubnagar Graduates' constituency, while Sarvotham Reddy has been named the party's candidate for the Warangal-Nalgonda-Khammam seat. The terms of the sitting MLCs from the two constituencies are scheduled to end in March 2027. The Election Commission has already initiated the process of revising electoral rolls ahead of the polls.

November 1, 2026, has been fixed as the qualifying date for enrolment of graduates as electors. The enrolment process began with the publication of a public notice on September 28. The notice will be republished in newspapers on October 15 and 25, while applications in Form-18 can be submitted up to November 6.

The Congress had held consultations on potential candidates before finalising the two names. The announcement comes as political parties step up preparations for the elections and the voter-enrolment exercise gains momentum.

Congress Demands CEC's Resignation

NEW DELHI, SEP 29

The meeting of the Congress Working Committee (CWC) concluded in Delhi. During the meeting, which lasted nearly three hours, extensive discussions were held on the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls, the functioning of the Election Commission, and the deletion of voters' names. The meeting was chaired by Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge and attended by Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi, Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, K. C. Venugopal, Jairam Ramesh and others.

Following the CWC meeting, the Congress put forward several key demands. It demanded the immediate resignation of Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar. It also called for an immediate halt to the SIR

Revanth meets top leaders ahead of CWC meeting in Delhi

Hyderabad, Sept.29: Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy held strategic discussions with top Congress leaders on Tuesday ahead of the Congress Working Committee (CWC) meeting. Taking to social media, Revanth Reddy shared that he had productive talks with party leader Rahul Gandhi, AICC General Secretary K.C. Venugopal, and Karnataka Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar. While emphasising that the development of Telangana remains his primary focus, the Chief Minister noted that the CWC meeting would address several key issues of national importance.

process and sought the restoration of the names of 13.30 crore voters, whom the Congress claims were removed during the exercise. Several reports stated that the CWC passed a resolution to this effect.

The Congress alleged that the CEC was taking unilateral decisions in the Election Commission and was not giving adequate importance to the views of the other Election Commissioners. The party said it had serious concerns regarding transparency in the electoral process, voters' rights and the independence of the Election Commission. The Election Commission, however, has maintained that differences of opinion

SUPREME COURT CALLS THE POLL PANEL TO THE BAR

Next Week Hearing On Whether One Voice Can Speak For Three

The Supreme Court has agreed to hear next week a petition that asks whether decisions taken in the name of the Election Commission of India under Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar carried the required collective authority of the three member body. The plea, mentioned today before

Chief Justice Surya Kant, seeks examination of recorded internal objections and a declaration that Article 324 power belongs to the Commission as an institution. The highest court of the land has now fixed a date. Next week the Supreme Court will examine a petition that goes to the heart of how
